

Andrew P. Forstenzer

Vice President, General Counsel and Corporate Secretary

Andrew P. Forstenzer, who joined Preferred Mutual in January 2016 as General Counsel, leads and contributes to several aspects of Preferred's operations, including government and regulatory affairs, corporate governance, litigation management, claims counsel and other key business functions.

Prior to joining Preferred, Andy served as Of Counsel to the national law firm of Wilson Elser Moskowitz Edelman & Dicker in its Dallas, Texas office. He also served for seven years as Executive Vice President & General Counsel for the Crump Group, a leading national insurance wholesaler. Andy was formerly Vice President-Senior Litigation Counsel for Marsh & McLennan Companies, where he practiced corporate law and negotiated complex litigation matters for almost 17 years.

Andy earned a Bachelor's degree in Economics from the Wharton School of Business at the University of Pennsylvania, a Juris Doctor degree from Villanova University Law School, and a Masters in Corporation Law from New York University Law School. He sits on the boards of the Earlville Opera House and Insurance Council of New Jersey, is a member of the Massachusetts Insurance Federation and NAMIC State Affairs Committee and serves on an insurance industry cyber advisory group formed jointly by NYIA, IIABNY and PIA. Andy is also a member of the faculty for the Advanced School of the National Association of Professional Surplus Lines Offices (NAPSLO).
