

Executive Biography

Yogesh is responsible for providing leadership to the finance function and building an enterprise capability around financial planning and analysis. Leveraging data, analytics and actuary intel, his role will be to foster business strategies to improve profitability.

Yogesh has over 25 years of financial services, including eight years within the Property & Casualty Insurance industry. Leveraging his expertise, Yogesh will lead the finance function in reducing expenses, budgeting, providing insight into operating performance and results, and identifying opportunities to drive revenue growth.

Yogesh has an MBA from Columbia Business School, a Master's (Chartered Accountancy) from the Institute of Chartered Accountants in Delhi, India, and a Bachelor of Commerce from Maharaja Sayajirao University in Vadodara, India.