

Executive Biography

Andrew P. Forstenzer is Vice President, General Counsel and Corporate Secretary.

Andrew is responsible for the leading several aspects of operations, including government and regulatory affairs, corporate governance, litigation management, claims counsel and other key business functions.

Andrew brings a wealth of knowledge to Preferred Mutual, having served in various executive positions practicing and negotiating complex litigation matters for over 17 years. In addition to his role with Preferred Mutual, he also is a member of the faculty for the Advanced School of the National Association of Professional Surplus Lines Offices (NAPSLO).

Prior to joining Preferred Mutual, Andrew served in a national law firm, where he practiced corporate law and negotiated complex litigation matters.

Andrew has a Bachelor's degree from Wharton School of Business at the University of Pennsylvania and a Juris Doctor degree from Villanova University Law School. In addition, he also obtained a Masters in Corporation Law from New York University Law School. He is an active board member on several committees, including Massachusetts Insurance Federation, NAMIC State Affairs Committee, is an advisor for NYIA, IIABNY and PIA.