

Executive Biography

Ronald R. Martin is Vice President, Business Compliance and Research.

Ronald provides oversight and is an expert resource to Preferred Mutual business teams with critical detail pertaining to business compliance.

He began his career with Preferred Mutual Insurance Company and has held positions with increasing responsibility over the past 30 years, including Commercial and Personal Lines to Research and Development.

Ronald brings to Preferred Mutual a wealth of industry knowledge, as well as expertise in insurance regulations and organizational business acumen.

Ronald has an Associate in Applied Science degree. He holds numerous insurance designations, including Associate in Insurance Services (AIS) and is a product committee member of The American Association of Insurance Services (AAIS).